Chocolate is not only for the tastebuds.....

Raw Cocoa powder is now considered one of the world's most beneficial super foods emerging in our world today. It has four times more antioxidants than goji berries, ten times the antioxidant level of blackberries and thirty times the antioxidant level of green tea.

Of course you can eat or drink raw cocoa powder, nibs or seeds but as your skin is the largest organ why not treat yourself to a chocolate body scrub or wrap

A simply wicked alternate..... Uma Thurman, Madonna and Victoria Beckham are all reported to indulge in chocolate body treatments,

So why don't you...?
